

GENERATION ONE DREAM VENTURE MASTERCLASSES:

Angel Investment and Entrepreneurship

Generation One, an initiative of the Minderoo Foundation, are delivering the national expansion of the Dream Venture masterclasses for aspiring angel investors and ambitious entrepreneurs.

The program is dedicated to providing Indigenous Australians with the connections, capabilities and access to capital to become investor-ready, or ready to invest.

Through hands-on education, the masterclasses will empower likeminded Indigenous entrepreneurs to level up their business venture, and Indigenous business owners, leaders and professionals to become investors.

Indigenous Angel Investor Masterclass

We recognise the power and wealth of Indigenous Australians to have a seat at the investment table. This masterclass provides Indigenous business leaders with a pathway to become accredited angel investors in Australia, and deploy more capital into the Indigenous business sector for business growth and job creation.

Through this masterclass, aspiring Indigenous investors will:

- Acquire key skills that are vital to angel investing: strategy, finance, marketing, people and talent, negotiations and leadership.
- Learn strategies to invest in high growth and early-stage start-ups.
- Connect with an alumnus of Indigenous angel investors.
- Access coaching, guidance and mentoring from business and investment leaders.

Indigenous Entrepreneurs Masterclass

The Indigenous Entrepreneurs masterclass will empower Indigenous start-ups and businesses to become equity investor-ready through a unique and informative program, facilitated by some of Australia's best investors and founders.

Through this masterclass, Indigenous entrepreneurs will:

- Be equipped with key strategies to raise capital and become investor-ready.
- Meet like-minded Indigenous entrepreneurs, investors, and business leaders.
- Understand how to develop and grow a sustainable business that balances social and economic returns.

Places are strictly limited for these masterclasses.

Applications are now open and close on 9 May 2021.
